

Cllr Derrick Griffin
Mayor of
Sutton Coldfield
Presented the awards

2019 BFAME Festival Winners

BFAME 2019 Festival Winners

Quarry Bank Youth Theatre
Best full-length youth production for 'Phantom of the Opera'

Solo acting Under 14
Ava Forrest

Solo Acting 14-18
Ella Keavy

Stephen Smith

Best actor in a one-act play as The Monster in Ode to a Monster

Margaret Jeffcoat
Best actress in a one-act play
as Joyce in Sparrows
by Circle Players
the Birmingham Stage One
winners of the AETF

Impact Senior Youth Theatre One Act Youth group winners with Find Me

Also awarded best male & female performances, best direction
& best technical achievement

Rebekah Fortune
Best original play with Ode to a Monster

BMOS
To James Gordanifar
Best male performance in a musical
in Chitty Chitty Bang Bang

BMOS
For outstanding achievement
with
Chitty Chitty Bang Bang

Mark Natrass
Best male performance in a full-length play
in And Then There Were None by Sutton Arts Theatre

Stourbridge AOS

Full-length

Musical Group winner with
The Addams Family

Also awarded best musical direction & best chorus

Quarry Bank MTC
Keishia Herbert – best actress in a musical as Delores in Sister Act

Claire Armstrong Mills
Best direction of a full-length play
With The Dresser
Performed by Grange Players
The Dresser was also the full-length festival winner

Liz Berriman was also presented with the Savoy Cup as the best actress in a full length play for her performance in Funny Money performed by Grange Players

Highbury Players
Best supporting cast with 'Beryl'
&
Best technical achievement with
'Snake in the Grass'

Sutton Arts Theatre
Outstanding achievement in a full-length play
with Ding Dong
and best set with Birdsong

WBOS

Best musical achievement with West Side Story and Outstanding achievement with Priscilla Queen of the Desert

TACT

Best direction, outstanding achievement best actor & actress.

Overall Festival Winner

with

Ode to a Monster

