

A future Drama Workshop:

For one full day, during the half-term holiday in 2022, the Birmingham & District Theatre Guild hosted a very successful youth drama workshop, initially instigated from a grant received from AETF in 2020.

The workshop, which covered three topics: New writing; Stage Combat and Projecting your performance, took place on Tuesday 22nd February at the magnificent Highbury Hall in Moseley, Birmingham. The age limit was under 19's and over 9's – a magnificent 35 places were booked.

Splitting the participants into three groups, they moved round from session to session so that all pupils attended each workshop with the tutors running their workshops three times. There were breaks in-between each session for warm-ups and very popular games.

At the end of the day, certificates of merit were awarded to the very best in each class. New friends were made and a great time was had by all.

A similar workshop will be taking place on 3rd April this year – watch this space for further details.
